THREE AREA RESIDENTS SELECTED AS CELEBRATE NJ! ANNOUNCES
MAY REASONS IN '365 REASONS' CAMPAIGN

(Bradley Beach, NJ) -- From the museums in northern New Jersey to the rural farmlands in southern New Jersey, residents from all twenty-one counties continue to talk about their reasons for loving the Garden State. Celebrate NJ!, a grass roots effort to build pride and promote a brighter future for New Jersey, has released the May list of Reasons to Celebrate NJ! as part of its year-long campaign.

One reason each from Morris, Essex and Union Counties have been chosen.

The Morris County reason came from:

- Leslie Bensley of Morristown- Morristown, the military capital of the America. George Washington and his troops encamped here not once, but twice!

The Essex County reason came from:

- Mary Tetzloff of Montclair- May in Montclair- a month long festival of events that make people feel good about living, working and shopping here. And tulips, tulips, tulips!

The Union County reason came from:

- Ann Minski of Fanwood- The sculpture garden at the Newark Museum. An oasis away from the busy city.

Karen Hatcher, Executive Director of Celebrate NJ! says, "We're four months into the campaign and people are really surprising us with their reasons. Now that the obvious ones have been covered, they're digging in and telling us about unique experiences, special places, things that speak to the heart of what it means to be from New Jersey and what they love here. It's so wonderful that New Jerseyans are telling the rest of us, in their own words, all there is to Celebrate in our great Garden State."

Celebrate NJ! invites everyone who has a Reason to Celebrate NJ! to log on to www.CelebrateNJ.org and enter that reason. No deadlines have been set. The group will continue to unveil the reasons monthly based on the number of days in a particular month. Residents are encouraged to enter multiple reasons describing the interesting and unique aspects of the Garden State. Entry cards are also available at over 350 libraries across the state. The selected reasons are announced daily on the organization's website. The best 365 reasons will be published as part of an advertising and media campaign, taking place on outdoor ads across the state and through radio, television and newspaper promotions.

The "365 Reasons to Celebrate NJ!" campaign is made possible through the generous support of sponsors NJ Cable Telecommunications Association, ArborSys Group, NJ101.5 Radio, and St. Barnabas Health Care System.
